Coupled impulse: output and reference error

48 kHz, nominal input peak 1. Periodic Dirichlet input sidelobes are retained; field/flux relaxation can produce a physical tail.

No DC or mean removal. Error plot uses the same finite-window DC-20 kHz mask with a double FFT; measured metrics remain in CSV.